Rome Press Flares Into

Building Collapses—Cochran at Red Cross Office—Tornado Destroys Homestead

AL SMITH 'SHOWS OFF' NEW YORK—Mrs. Albert LeBaron, wife of the president of France, is getting a diversionary view of New York under the directing finger of Al Smith. She was a passenger on the maiden voyage of the liner Normandie which docked Monday.

GOVERNOR THANKS RED CROSS HEAD—Governor McNary called on Admiral Guy T. Groves, national chairman of the Red Cross, in Washington Monday to thank him and his organization for their aid in the relief of Nebraska flood victims.

FALLING BUILDING WRECKS AUTO—Parted right where the automobile bullock passed was sitting a few days ago, this automobile was crushed yesterday when the building at 107-109 South Fourteenth street collapsed. The car belongs to Roy Felton, Tenney Ogden's former manager.

HOOVER GETS HONORARY DEGREE—Former President Hoover is shown here as he received the honorary degree of doctor of laws at Drake university, Des Moines, Monday. Dr. D. W. Harbison (left), university president, made the presentation.

OSAMA U. REGENT—Ivor Regent, head attorney, resigned W. T. Graham as the head of regents of Municipal university. He was elected by the school board at a meeting Monday night.

FLOUR SACK MODEL—That's what those two girls call it, and John J. Gorman, purchasing commissioner for Sibley Inc., Detroit's famed shoe store, says such antiquated bathing costumes are keeping him away from the beach. He wants modern suits for modern girls. (All rights.)

GRETTA IN NEW YORK—After having accompanied a movie show on her arrival in New York, Gretta Gaska, eastern-city film star, returned and posed this yesterday, attractively framed in this window of her hotel. This is one of very few exterior post shots of Gaska. (All rights.)

BASCOM SELECTS HIM—William C. Bascom, Omaha city manager, selected Monday evening, the elected grand master of the Grand lodge, A. F. & A. M. of the breaks, Tuesday afternoon. At the society's annual communication in progress at Marquette temple, he has been duly grand master.

GRADUATES WITH HIGHEST HONORS—A week before Frazier Ford, 20, of Fairfield, Ia., was to be graduated from the University of Iowa, she underwent a serious operation. This picture shows her in the hospital at Iowa City Monday as the head nurse graduated "with highest distinction."

CRICKS ARE PROBABLY THE MOST common pest of Jimmie MacIntosh, shown, last recipient of the New York slug. Her latest picture is "Oh for the Lamp of China."

THEY'D PUT 'RABBLERS' TO SHAME—They say these Tugh high boys practice their various roles on little Donald Vande would have been pretty well broken up if they didn't know how to do the job intelligently. The three have just finished a course in first aid sponsored by the Red Cross and are now to be given badges of proficiency if they pass final exams. Left to right are William Strang, Jack May and William Senger.

DOWNTOWN BUILDING COLLAPSES—107-109 South Fourteenth street, formerly occupied by the Salvation Army, and known as the "Hotel of Blood" because of the inhuman establishments it once housed, collapsed yesterday morning. In this picture, City officials immediately announced that a fire would be started to get all Omaha buildings which have been condemned here down.

PIONEER HOME DESTROYED BY SOUTHWESTERN NEBRASKA TORNADO—On the site of one of the oldest homesteads in Red Willow county, now occupied by Clifford Blaska, this wreckage shows the havoc wrought by Friday's tornado. The wreckage was an added disaster as cranks and rivets were at flood crest as the tornado hit. Note water-filled stream in background. (All rights.)
