

Dying Vegetation due to Salt Water Intrusion

The brown region along the coast indicates dying vegetation due to Salt Water burn. The brown area in the Gulf of Mexico indicates a high concentration of sediment that was taken from the coastal areas when the surge waters flowed back into the gulf. Imagery courtesy of NASA. Map made by Donovan Landreneau and Jonathan Brazzell NWS Lake Charles